DESCRIPTION:

The Lunkarya is a long-coated cavy with loose curls, frontal, cheek sweeps, and two rump rosettes. The coat should grow forward to form a frontal, and be presented without parting.

TYPE–Points 15: Lunkaryas are to have a medium body with well-developed shoulders, a strong midsection, and well-rounded, smooth hindquarters. Head to be broad with good width. Eyes to be large and bold.

COAT–Points 65: (Texture 25, Density 15, Structure 15, Head Furnishings; Cheek, Side, and Rear Sweeps 10).

Texture–Points 25: The texture of the coat is to be as harsh as possible giving it a good rise and elastic impression all over the body.

Density–Points 15: The density of the coat is to be even all around the body.

Structure–Points 15: The coat is to have loose curls and waves, giving an unruly, tousled appearance. The belly coat should be dense and curly.

Head Furnishings; cheek, side, and rear sweeps–Points 10: The head furnishings are to cover the head forming a thick frontal. The coat on the head is shorter with coarse wavy hairs standing straight out. The cheek sweeps should be pronounced. Two rump rosettes should be present, lifting the coat toward the front of the animal. The coat of the sides should be even and balanced.

Faults–Additional body rosettes causing a visible impact on the coat, thin texture, lacking evenness to waves, matted coat, breaks or gaps in the coat, uneven sweeps.

Eligible to be entered in all ARBA sanctioned shows as exhibition animals. May NOT compete for Best in Show

Disqualifications from Competition–No rump rosettes, crest, totally straight coat with no curl or wave.
COLOR–Points 10: Color is to match the variety description. In marked varieties color points are to be divided equally – ½ the points to color quality and ½ the points to markings.
CONDITION–Points 10: Per ARBA definition.
