All persons should take into consideration that this event involves animals and to dress, act, and exercise caution appropriate for the activity involved. All persons entering the show, the grounds, site, and show areas for whatever purpose do so entirely at their own risk. By virtue of entering the show, the entrant has indicated his/her acceptance of the show rules listed in the official show catalog, assumes all risks involved, and agrees to abide by any determination/rulings made by the show committee. The Monument Bunny Breeders Association, or the owner, agent, or management of the show facility, or any other related organization will NOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE for any type of theft, accident, or personal injury to any person or personal property, whether owned, borrowed, or rented, due to neglect, or any other cause.

The Ravings of a Show Secretary

(Information taken from a 1992 "Rabbits USA" article, but the information is still appropriate today.) New exhibitors and many long time breeders fill out the show entry form in a jumbled manner and wonder why the show secretary makes so many mistakes. A long time show secretary tells us how to make her life and job easier and produce fewer mistakes. When entering rabbits on the entry form, start with one breed and variety, do all the bucks then all the does. Start with senior bucks, on to 6/8's and then the juniors; do the same with the does of this bred and variety. Then and only then go on to the next variety. After entering all of one breed then go on to the next breed. When you change breeds or varieties, skip a line. With almost everyone using a show program, entry of the shows goes much faster if you list your animals in the above manner. There is nothing more frustrating than working with an entry and be inputting information when suddenly another breed or variety appears without any ceremony and then the owner skips right back to the breed or variety before. Typed entries are great, or they can just be put on a spread sheet, example below.

Rabbit Entry Procedure - Open and Youth

Completely fill out an entry form.

- a. Your full name, address and email address. This is how you get your show report.
- b. The entry form needs: Ear number, Breed, Showroom variety, Class & Sex for every
