Show Rules:

These are ARBA sanctioned Open and Youth Shows. The shows will be governed by the latest revised rules of ARBA. Signing or submitting an entry implies acceptance of these rules. The full text of the rules are available for review at:

<https://arba.net/official-arba-show-rules-2/>

Sweepstake points are awarded for Maine State Rabbit Breeders Association. Premiums will be awarded for Show A only (see page 43 of fair booklet for more information).

The CCRBA, being a club within ARBA, will be governed and ran under the latest and revised official show rules of ARBA and all prizes will be awarded strictly in accordance with the ARBA Standard of Perfection.

1. CCRBA reserves the right to substitute judges in the place of those listed or appoint additional judges if necessary. Show entry denotes acceptance of assigned judge(s). The Show Superintendent and/or Show Secretary have the right to make necessary changes, including, but not limited to: changes in judges, and breeds judged. Judging assignments are made prior to the show. Do not ask for a breed to be reassigned to a different judge the day of the show.

2. CCRBA reserves the right to restrict show entries due to an Rabbit Hemorrhagic Disease Virus Type 2 outbreak.

3. Grooming, tables, chairs, blowers, supplies, etc., are permitted based upon space. Please do not block pathways and stack your cages when possible. If space is an issue, there is room to set up outside for grooming space. Please be courteous and aware of other exhibitors when setting up.

4. Only Rabbits and/or Cavies will be permitted in the Showroom. No other pets or livestock, will be permitted, pursuant to State or federal law.

5. In order to be shown, all rabbits must be permanently and legibly in the left ear.
6. All covies must have an ear tag for identification in order to be shown.
7. All animals are entered at the owner's risk. Show personnel and judges are not responsible for the death, injury, and/or loss of any animal. All possible care will be taken to safeguard the health and safety of the animals.
8. Any animals showing signs of disease will be immediately removed from the showroom, whether or not they are on the show table, the entry fee will be forfeited. Please be considerate of your fellow exhibitors and leave sick animals at home. The show superintendent reserves the right to refuse entry or remove from the showroom all animals in poor condition (sniffling, sneezing, significantly matted fur in the inner forelimbs, open mouth breathing, severe weepy eye, conjunctivitis, or crust on the animal's genitals or nose.) If there are any concerns about an animal's health, please report to the Show Secretary and Show Superintendent.
9. Maine State Law requires all rabbits to be at least 8 weeks of age in order to be sold. The Show Superintendent has the right to ask for verification of age and/or oversee the potential removal of any underage animals. No animals permitted at the show under 8 weeks (2 months) of age. Does with kits should be left at home if they're not weaned. Only exhibitors shall be allowed to sell rabbits at the show. Sales by non-members of the CCRBA will be assessed a 20% commission fee and payment must be made to show superintendent Marie Simoneau or President Micheleyann Ostiguy via cash or Pay Pal.
10. No breeding permitted in the Showroom. This is a health biosecurity issue.
11. No alcohol, firearms, or smoking are allowed on premises. For everyone's enjoyment, all exhibitors are urged to display the utmost respect and courtesy for the judges and each other. Anyone causing significant issues can and will be removed and all entries are forfeited.
12. Exhibitors interfering with, annoying, molesting, influencing a judge, or acting in an unbecoming manner will be ejected and barred from the show, and potential future shows. All entries will be forfeited.
13. Anyone found to be engaging in a harassment, threatening/malicious behavior, or any discriminatory actions/language towards any person at the show will forfeit their entry fees and will be required to leave the show.
14. Exhibitors must check in for payment. You must check in no later than 8:30 a.m. Show starts promptly at 9:00 a.m., and grandstand opens at 7:00 a.m. Entrance for exhibitors will be through the Service Gate 8 at the rear of the Entertainment Building. Limited parking will be available outside that gate. DO NOT ENTER from the Maine Gate at the front of the fairgrounds (Gate 2). DO NOT DRIVE THROUGH THE FAIR!

15. All rabbits entered in fur and wool classes must also be entered in the regular breed classes.

16. To avoid judging table delays, a three call rule will apply at the judge's discretion. Animals not at the judging table when called may be excused from the Show Superintendent's discretion (such as the exhibitor or animal is no longer.)

17. Please let the Show Superintendent know if you are leaving before the end of the show.

18. No changes will be made to sheets at the Judge's tables unless approved by the Show Secretary.

19. Awards must be picked up, the day of show from the Awards Table. We cannot mail awards aside from premiums.

20. Scratched entries will still be charged the entry fee. Exceptions can be made for emergency situations at the discretion of the Show Secretary.

21. ATTENTION PARENTS/GUARDIANS: You are responsible for minor children in your care, and will be held liable for any damage they cause. Failure to follow this rule may result in being barred for future shows.

22. All youth entered rabbits must be brought to the show table by the youth exhibitor. No adults will be allowed to put youth animals onto the judges table.
